

What Are Friends For?

Essays, Stories, and Poems on Friendship

Rosemary Sazonoff Writing Contest:

February 1-February 29

Sponsored by the Friends of the Library, the 16th Annual Creative Writing Contest celebrates the value of friendship. The contest honors the memory of Library Trustee, community activist and journalist Rosemary Sazonoff. The library encourages authors from 2nd grade through adult to participate.

For Adults: High school students and adults may submit one short (1,000 words or fewer) unpublished story, poem or essay exploring, explaining, or expressing the value of friendship. Winners will be honored with an informal public reading of their entries and a cash prize. First place prize is $200, second place is $100 and third place is $50. To be eligible, please turn in this form and your submission by February 29, 2012.

Name:

Address:

Phone:

Title of submission:

Please return this form with three copies of your typed submission, or email submission to sazonoff@deerfieldlibrary.org (include name on form or in email body only)

For more information, please contact Emily Compton-Dzak

847-580-8930 or ecomptondzak@deerfieldlibrary.org