January 2009

It's final! We are moving into our newly expanded and renovated library starting January 13 (Tuesday). We've been extending due dates on books and other materials checked out in late December or early January. Feel free to keep them until the due date, but you can also return them to other libraries or in our book returns. By January 20, if not sooner, the book return and the separate media return will be available for your use in our new parking lot. They are drive-up boxes, for your convenience!

We will be closed until February 23, though if we have most of our furniture and computers by then, we may open sooner. We will be updating our website, so please check it for details. Why move now? Our lease in the temporary quarters expires at the end of January, and we need time to dispose of surplus shelving, furnishings, etc. We also need to allow time for weather delays.

Thank you for visiting us in our temporary location, and we look forward to serving you in our beautiful new library.

Did You Lose Something?

We found a gift card and a sum of cash in one of the public restrooms at 71 Lyman St. If you can identify the card and the amount of money, we will be happy to return both to you. Please note that there may be a day or two we do not have phones. You may also e-mail circulation@northboroughlibrary.org

The Senior Center Book Discussion group will meet on January 15 from 1-3 p.m. The book is Last Rituals, an Icelandic novel of secret symbols, medieval witchcraft, and modern murder by Yrsa Sigurdardottir.

GRAND OPENING BOOKLET

The Friends of the Library are producing a keepsake booklet for our Grand Opening. They are printing 1000 copies. Advertising is available, as well as a page of "messages" for the library. The message can be up to 100 characters, including spaces. The message can be a greeting, a short quote, or just your name. Each message costs $20. Messages must be submitted by February 1, 2009. Go to our website, the Friends page, or contact Ellen Church (508) 361-5484, or at ellenchurch@charter.net.

It's not too late for donations! We still have quite a wish list! Thank you to donors who completed their pledges this year, and to those who have donated for the first time! Use the form on reverse for convenience.
